

I do not support changes in the regulations of the telecommunications industry.
I feel that competition is healthy for the consumer and keeps prices down, forcing companies to compete with services and products. Thank you.